Dear St. Tammany Reader:

Your friends and neighbors in St. Tammany Parish have paid for the printing and postage on this copy of The Councilor so that you may share with them the truthful (provable) facts that the daily papers leave out.

If some of this information seems harsh, it is because we are in a difficult time in our country, and the better people (like St. Tammany folks) should be IMMEDIATELY given the FACTS that they can't get in ordinary papers.

About 500 of your neighbors in St. Tammany are already getting The Councilor. Of course, we don't want ALL people of your parish, just the 20% to 25% who are the most stable, the most dedicated to Americanism and honesty.

We hope (as do your neighbors) that you will come inside with us. By that, we mean "come where the facts are".

You can become a fully-paid subscriber to The Councilor for just $2.00. This means 21 to 24 issues per year. Please fill out the subscription blank and send it with your $2 payment to:

COUNCILOR (Trust Paper)

The Councilor is now the 5th largest newspaper in Louisiana and it is only 4 years old. We will soon be the largest. (Incidentally, the largest paper, a morning publication in New Orleans, has been convicted by a 12-man jury of telling lies to its readers, and is a joint loser with Associated Press of a two million dollar libel suit. Evidence in the court room showed that this foreign owned daily paper had omitted important news stories and twisted others badly.)

The Councilor has never been sued and will never lose a lawsuit because WE PRINT THE TRUTH.

WESTBROOK PEGLER

America's No. 1 Columnist Offers Irreverent Appraisal of an Improper Bostonian

This country, indeed the world, is badly overstocked with Bobby Kennedy whose total elimination from politics and the human race by violence similar and equal to that which he inflicted on Oxford, Miss., would be a boon to the United States of America. My first meeting with Bobby gave me serene confidence that there never was a human being, if such he be, more easily to be hated. I felt that I could despise Bobby from a sitting position and on short notice for no worse reason than his natural, consummate nastiness and bad manners. These were new to me although I had met Jack and Old Joe and Jackie, the shrine of each patriot's frustration.

I had not then nor have I since encountered anyone with this little scut's easy, limber gift of innate repulsiveness, expressed primarily in rudeness and dishonesty which seemed to be instinctive. The Kennedys spread about this country an awareness of Bobby's winsome traits by means of an organized publicity campaign. For reasons of her own which were not frankly confided to the American people, Jackie identified herself more and more prominently with her brother-in-law. And, as Bobby daily partook of her publicity, the favorable superstition which surrounded the whole Kennedy posse lost some of its fragrance and became a stench. But, actually, Jackie was not a Kennedy in the worst sense of that name. True, this murmuring damsel, this office girl in the city room of the Washington Times-Herald, had married into one of the shantiest Irish families in Boston and was carried over the threshold of our national palace by a young politician with a crick in his back whom Harry S. Truman had rejected on the ground of immaturity. She had adopted a bee-hive hair-do and a male dress-maker and soon was busily manifesting an interest in fiddle-music and a pants-presser who presides over symphonic squeals, grunts and footles with a delicate stick. In one instance, newspapers reported that he kissed her in public or vice versa. When her husband ran for President, Jackie went slumming for votes for him in Harlem where she murmured expressions in spiggoty Porto Rican to multitudes of cut-throats imported for the prestige of the needle unions and their buttonhole maker padrones named Dubinsky and the like. Dubinsky claims to have a national treasury of $300,000,000 which is more than any honest occasion of organized needle-workers justifies. But Jackie perceived no civic duty to object to this monstrosity and Jack skirted the subject. No high political authority ever has served a subpoena or warrant on this racket to hold its Polish, Baltic and Messarabian executives to an accounting and Jack Kennedy's most gracious compliment to these honored guests of the United States during his brief presidency was a speech praising the rackets of unionism for accumulating money. Meanwhile, he and his democratic henchmen applied their genius to the dissipation of public funds.

GOVERNOR BOASTS HE WILL PAY NAACP LAWYER AND WHITE COMPROMISER UNLAWFUL SALARIES

Senate Votes To Slash Deadhead Pay But McKeithen Says He Will Ignore Law

BATON ROUGE-- Riding high on the backing of Vice President Hubert Humphrey and several Louisiana daily newspaper publishers, Gov. John McKeithen has announced that he will ignore an act of the Louisiana Legislature.

In a 20 to 19 vote, the Louisiana Senate voted to slash the salaries of an NAACP lawyer and a white compromiser named earlier by McKeithen to head the newly created state race-mix agency, tagged by most newspapers as the "Bi-Racial Commission". Conservatives had earlier tried to shut off all funds to the mix group, and failing in this effort, moved to slash part-time salaries from $20,000 to $15,000 in one instance and $15,000 to $10,000 in another.

McKeithen boasted to newsmen that he would ignore the victory of patriot forces and would pay the Mixers anyway.

Sen. Harold Montgomery of Doyline who led the effort to chop money from the unpopular mix agency took to the Senate floor later to describe McKeithen's action in behalf of integration as "the most dictatorial statement from a chief executive that I have ever heard." Mont-

The director of the bi-racial mix commission, a controversial Shreveporter named John Martzell, draws a $20,000 salary, almost as much as the governor lawfully gets for himself. The NAACP lawyer, Jesse Stone, gets $15,000.

Montgomery contended that the positions are "deadhead jobs". He said Martzell and Stone "are not working full time, not half time and not even quarter time. They meet occasionally to carry on, in my opinion, the work of the NAACP."

McKeithen is lining up vote support from organized minority blocs although his failure to get such blocs in 1964 caused whites to rally to his support and elect him. He wants to consolidate his hold on the governor's office with a presently unlawful second term, and has received heavy backing from Humphrey and other Washington sources.

RANSOM NOTE

Earlier, Louisiana patriots tried to knock out the entire $64,000 appropriation for the race-mix agency, contending that it was unneeded and that riots are usually created by such a-

In the later successful vote to chop money from the inflated salaries, senators cited 19-19. Lieutenant Governor Taddy Ay-cock, a segregationist and conservative, cast the deciding vote. He has been mentioned prominently as a likely contender for the job now held by integrationist John McKeithen.

2 Leftists Face Challenge

BATON ROUGE--Two veteran left-wing congressmen face serious challenge, possibly defeat, in the La. Democratic primaries.

Jimmy Morrison is finding his work in behalf of LBJ and the NAACP hard to explain to his 6th District voters in spite of many hours of free TV time. Leading

BRANTON, STINSON LEAD

BATON ROUGE--Leaders of segregation forces in the La. House of Representatives in the recent session were Rep. Percy Branton of Webster and Rep. Ford Stinson of Bossier.

Both men have been active, even to the point of sacrifice, in defending Americanism and Southern traditions. Branton is one of several conservatives seeking election to the Public Service Commission challenger is Judge John Ratich a conservative who in 1964 record audiences of up to 5,000.

In the 3rd District, Ed Willis, another LBJ rubberstamp, has fast-moving challengers. He is conducting a sympathy campaign based on his major mental and physical breakdown. Willis' breakdowns came when he made a Party assignment to take to House Com. on Un-American Activities out of the fight against Communism. Critics believe the strenuous campaign will cause the turncoat congressman to drop out, even if re-elected.

Administration plans are to keep the La. congressman out of sight in a rest home if he wins and to fly him to Washington only when the White House badly needs his vote. He recently visited Congress, supported on the and representatives are elected to protect the public's interest from dictatorial policies, and to curb waste of public funds. He reminded voters that the Governor does not have the power to ignore legislative acts.

Watts had such an agency. Senator O'Keefe of New Orleans, leader of the Stern-NAACP forces in the Senate, slyly told the lawmakers that $64,000 would be a cheap pay-off to prevent millions of dollars of destruction that might follow unless the ransom was paid. O'Keefe didn't mention what most of his colleagues already know—that he is heavily indebted to the minority groups.

Only fifteen senators voted with the patriots on this first ballot. Here is the vote record:

High Society in a Boston Suburb

More than 300 persons attended the annual "tea" of the Springfield Branch of the NAACP on June 19 at Springfield College. Congressman Edward Boland (D.-Mass.) speaks. On the platform are mayor and Mrs. Charles V. Ryan, Jr. and the negress who chaired the "tea".

The guest of honor and main speaker was the "Rev." Fred Shuttlesworth, who, according to FBI files, knows more about moonshine whiskey than he does tea. His FBI file shows that he was imprisoned for manufacturing and selling moonshine.

Despite Great Society, U.S. Faces Danger From Soviet

Walker Jenkins' Friend Shows Up At State Department Dinner With Little Bows On His Shoes . . .

WASHINGTON—President Lyndon Johnson is doing nothing constructive to lessen the whispers about his relationship with Walter Jenkins and other uneasy persons. The talk was first set in motion by skinnydip parties in which LBJ required male guests to swim nude in the White House pool.

Johnson played host at a state department dinner in Washington, June 21 wearing these bows on his shoes.

The President is married and has two grown daughters. A Capitol Hill source told The Councilor that the President is not ("funny") but that he does make a strong appeal for vote support from the Mattachine Society, the daughters of Lesbos, and similar twilight-world organizations.

Prayer-Ban Lawyer Quits NAACP In Disgust Over Riots

BALTIMORE—NAACP lawyer Leonard J. Kerpelman, above, has quit his top post in the Civil Rights movement, stating he has become "disgusted" with riots.

He said that negroes—many of whom are permitted to hold lesser jobs in the khazar white dominated NAACP— "have drawn the Watts carnage to their bosoms and have declared it to be, not their shame, but their glory." Khazar storekeepers were among the worst hurt in the intramural riot in Watts.

Much of the unrest in the NAACP and other civil rights groups come from a power struggle between white leaders who control the purse-strings, and the highly publicized negro "personality boys" who are, in effect, errand runners. Negroes contend that they are intelligent enough to run the NAACP, CORE and similar groups. White revolutionists at the helm call the negroes "stupid" and insist on holding the leadership.

Kerpelman was the man whose arguments before the Supreme Court in 1963 resulted in the public school prayer ban.

Lawyer Warns Of The Income Tax Czars Who Hound Innocent Taxpayers Harder Than George III Ever Dared

Technique Is To Instill Fear With Overhanging Threats

URBANA—Joseph M. Williamson of Urbana, Ill. is one of the few lawyers willing to tackle the Internal Revenue Service with the severe words that are the minds of frightened Americans.

Williamson finds Sheldon Co. Inc.'s income tax snoopers more irresponsible than Bostonians of 1774 regarded George III to be in matters of honesty and taxation.

"Use of the IRS to keep people in line is very common, dangerously so," the attorney said. "The technique of the IRS is to instill fear by demonstrating that if a citizen doesn't conform, he'll really get it."

"Its agents know that they can often ruin a man's career and life merely by investigating him and his associates."

"Its agents also know that by charging a man with fraud or tax evasion, they can put him to terrific expense and cause him every kind of embarrassment, even

Are the victims of such probes usually "patriots" or persons associated with conservative groups?

Apparently not. At the time of this interview, Williamson was working in behalf of a client who owned 600 units of housing on an Air Force base, gained apparently in one of those deals that the general public knows little about.

A Double Standard

On the one hand, federal officials talk glowingly of providing federal funds and free lawyers from the Justice Department to civil rights leaders who run afoul of state laws. On the other hand, the federal government furnishes unlimited money to harass taxpayers who are on the hook but not all the way—with no thought of picking up the big tab for defense lawyers.

Williamson was asked to comment on the cases of Dr. Stefan Durovic, developer of Krabioren and James Hoffa who sometimes helps the "establishment" and

"It's only speculation on my part," he said, "for I don't know the cases intimately."

"But if the tax people are out to get Dr. Durovic, he'd better just give up, because their methods are inexhaustible."

"Since the government failed to convict him and Dr. Andrew Ivy of fraud in their recent trial, they'll keep after him until they get him in another way."

"As for Hoffa," Williamson continued, "I have no sympathy for him personally. But the tax people used methods against him that even his wealth and the vast resources of his union couldn't successfully oppose."

"He's had a real tough time of it."

How about the ordinary little people?

"People like these are intimidated every day by the IRS," the attorney charged. "This is frightening and dangerous abuse of power, and it must be stopped."

"After almost twenty years of these kinds of cases, I've seen

They have two children, also of mixed lineage, shown in the picture at right.

On Mixing The Breeds . . .

The Tuckers devote much of their time to volunteer work with a race-mix group, CORE. They recently moved to Tacoma, Wash.

Strangely, most mixed couples prefer pure bred or pedigreed animals when they purchase pets, but the Tuckers apparently did not indulge themselves in such a matter. A white woman rancher in Western Kansas, with a negro husband and a house full of mixed children, insists on nothing but pure-bred Hereford cattle on her ranch.

Textbook Substitutes a Colored Man For Nathan Hale

Edge Toward A Little Red Schoolhouse

DENVER—A reading textbook has been adopted by the local school board and several others in the U.S., viewing the nation through the eyes of ultra-liberals. It's called "Land of the Free" and designed to color the thinking of 8th graders.

Columnist Morris Ryskind reports that Know-Nothings in California have pressured the state senate into blocking, at least temporarily, a million dollar appropriation for the controversial textbook in that state.

Example: The chapter of the American Revolution omits mention of Nathan Hale and other men to gain the White House. Sen. McCarthy is roasted.

Communists and the NAACP? A good negro like Booker T. Washington is damned, but a Communist who helped found the NAACP, W.E.B. DuBois, is saluted heavily.

The book praises the UN, UNESCO, ACLU and other leftist groups and assemblies, while downgrading Christian institutions.

Tentata rapina a Washington nella nostra sede diplomatica

ROMA— Here in Italy, newspaper readers are often told more about negro terror in Washington, D. C. than Americans are permitted to know.

The picture of the Italian embassy, right, was printed in the April 27 issue of Il Tempo to illustrate a story on Washington terror that has been carefully kept away from Americans.

The story told of an attempted robbery of the embassy by two colored men who demanded watches and money, and then shot a 67-year-old embassy staff member who tried to intervene.

Italians also know that female employees in top offices of the U. S. government are victimized by negro assailants who are in turn protected from prosecution by vote-nervous officials. A typical example was the 23-year-old secretary to a U. S. senator who was kidnapped in a nicer Washington neighborhood by a small negro male. She told police that he held her captive for 12 hours in a wooded spot near Oxen Hill and Glass Manor. She said she was not raped but was forced to enter into another type of sex act.

Even congressmen have been beaten by the thugs, whose immunity from punishment has been a source of embarrassment for the U. S. Office of Negro Relations which contends negroes should be forced to obey laws just like whites. Elsewhere in the nation, screaming mobs of lower type negroes have blocked police efforts to arrest colored lawbreakers. In Washington, the opposition comes from above rather than from mobs in the streets.

Rights Groups Seek Greater Leniency as Attacks on Innocent Women Become More Appalling

ROCKFORD, ILL.— Civil Rights organizations are waging a strong campaign for even more leniency for negro rapists, kidnapers and murderers.

Under cover of political pressure, the prison doors swing open rapidly for most negroes who are sentenced. Thousands never serve time.

LONDON—The Polish Communist government which has been persecuting Christians, clubbing some of them and murdering others, stays in power partially because of subsidies paid by U. S. taxpayers. ## Case is Hush-hushed Despite Official Charges MILWAUKEE — A curtain of hush-hush now surrounds the case of the white Civil Rights priest who was arrested here after alleged immoral relations with a negro woman. Prostitution charges against the woman, Jessie Mae Young, 23, of 2030 N. 5th St., were dismissed after the prosecution was unable to produce the priest, Father John J. Bevin, 30, of 3026 N. 66th St. Father Bevin is believed to be in the psychiatric ward at St. Michael hospital.

Many local Catholics have been embarrassed by this and other civil rights activity of leftist priests.

Pegler Says He Can Despise Bobbie Kennedy From a Sitting Position . . .

Jackie Kennedy speaks French or patois in addition to varieties of Caribbean gullah which have now become so prevalent in New York that immigrants dragged to our slums by rickety-air-liners to nullify the votes of Americans have been excused from compliance with our election laws. Nowadays they need not read or write English and Yiddish is preferred. Jackie is deemed to be pretty, but over-emphasis on this virtue has inspired ungallant reminders from editorial savants of the other side that pulchritude exists only in the eye of the beholder.

Soon after Jack Kennedy's departure from the troubled scenes of his political career there occurred a series of politico-emotional excesses without example in American history and were insulting to Kennedy's subjects, then all the belittlement inflicted on the American populace by all the Roosevelts, from Eleanor down to Jimmy and Elliott. Not even Jimmy Hoffa, the Caesar of the Teamsters, John L. Lewis as hickologer of the CIO or George Meany, the unhidden but unchallenged successor to Lewis ever held the people in contempt as deep and acornful as the Kennedys revealed.

The vast expanse of saw-grass, dunes and wreckage which set the voyager's eye at Idlewild Airport east of New York was informally christened Kennedy Airport. No member of the Kennedy gang from Boston had ever turned a shovel in the construction of this frightening marvel and it is doubtful that Joe had ever invested any millions as a mark of his confidence. Nevertheless, overnight or within a week, after Jack's demise, Idlewild became "Kennedy" to all the world. And, far down the Atlantic Coast, on the Florida shore, another marvel, wrought by extortion from subservient American multitudes, ceased to be Cape Canaveral and became Cape Kennedy without notice of permission.

In this impulsive way, a monument to the courage, initiative and enterprise of a great nation became a tribute to a clan of bartenders, thugs and grafters from Ireland by way of the Boston docks and Harvard. They had had nothing to do with the introduction of the space age or any of the marvels wrought by American adventurers, heroes and fools. If Jack Kennedy ever made a landing at Canaveral in a public or private flying machine, even by misadventure, that incident has been forgotten. It seems inevitable that Lyndon Johnson in his clumsy delight to swing unarmored troops for his political party was willing to yield a trifle of imaginary honor to his rival in the election of 1964. After all, Jack was dead now and no harm could be done by bestowing a few scraps of synthetic honor.

Their Character

The character of the Kennedy family is shown not only by Bobby's violent intrusion into the fears and sorrows of a fine American population, the Southern states, but in a sordid scramble for the votes of negro lovers, prostitutes and other low democrats. It is a frightening fact that in the Southern tier today thousands of white Democratic voters have turned scoundrel and not only disarmed but repudiated their natural neighbors and invited Lyndon Johnson to overpower their homeland by force under negro mobs. For, if Johnson meets the chattering, babbling hordes of Southern negroes and their imported hoodlums with hoodlum force at crossroad battle grounds, he will have to fight a civil war against white democrats whose part in this crisis is the fight of clean American citizens defending their women and their rights. The invaders, with their hallowed demand for "black power" can be beaten back by the organized lawless government of white men. But in every crossroad scuffle, the clean unarmed whites are on the defensive against not only a reckless rabble, but against Johnson's armed forces, black and white. A veteran deep-south Congressman recently wrote me:

More Southern Turncoats

"I know now how George Custer must have felt at the Battle of the Little Big Horn. Every time I look around, I see fewer soldiers and more Indians. It is frustrating when you look at what used to be called the 'solid south'. The strength of 120 votes has dwindled to about 10 or 20. This is rugged and you have to fight every inch of the way and never let up."

Jack Kennedy's betrayal of the white civilization of Mississippi and other deep-South states and the cities of New York, Los Angeles was not a mere mishap. He was incompetent and truckling to lawless gangsters of the communist cabal and Americans were beneath his contempt.

His crimes were filippany, carelessness and outrageous nepotism. He knew his buck-tooth hoodlum brother was a clown without natural ability or professional training and still he threw him into our Department of Justice to nullify the civil rights of the whole southern tier of states and all white citizens. And the purpose, fraudulently set forth, was to realize the civil rights of the southern negroes. The rights of Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana and the rest of those commonwealths and of their white citizens were null and void by order of the donkey Irish ignorant Kennedys, including Jack.

No wonder Harry Truman had called his immature and rejected his on that account. Jack knew that Bobby was an oaf around him, a quarrelsome reckless oaf.

What kind of rolling family was this which Joe and Jack dumped on the American people? Didn't Jackie know and couldn't she admonish her husband to show a little intelligence? She could, but apparently she didn't and after Jack was killed she went traipsing all over with Bobby. Is this the class of the Boston Irish? Is this what Joe Kennedy, the plug-hat gentleman from Harvard intended to slant on the American nation?

Was he surprised when Ethel and Bobby "flung" that alcoholic drinking brawl at the swimming pool of their home in Virginia?

Is there any reason why a respectable American should mourn Jack Kennedy who knowingly did all that to our country, gassed hundreds of Mississippi coeds in the dead of night, abducted General Walker in defiance of a finer record than any Kennedy ever achieved and flung him into a vile prison dump without legal excuse? To be sure, Bobby signed the orders for all this but Jack, a frivolous oaf with the great powers of his office was the one who planted Bobby in that chair knowing what to expect of him. They both were so good and the hard luck wasn't Jack's and Jackie's—but ours.

Good Public Relations

Although I have no proof, there is no doubt in my mind that Joe Kennedy freely and generously gave money to people who had no claim on his charity. A number of those West Point cadets who were dismissed in a heart-rending case of maladministration for "cheating" in a technical sense were quietly subsidized and planted in other schools, some of them in Notre Dame, and no formal word of Kennedy's kindness ever was published. Others were gentled quietly into other schools. A number of New York artists who had lived prosperously on their income as illustrators of magazine fiction and "articles" found themselves on the cushions of luxurious hotels in Florida on Kennedy's private free list. In this matter, I have the word of one of my own old friends in the magazine trade who evidently found himself not only antiquated but broke and out of the market because the market for free hand and penmanship work had suddenly drained down. The world changed and, but for Kennedy, who hardly knew them, would have been less than a joke. Kennedy's fate such generosity out of his enormous fortune. I still am a world-abolition from a vain, hard-mouthed, reckless millionaire who inflicted his brats on history, the United States and mankind to gratify his personal selfish vanity.

$4.00

Here are some out-of-print books we have obtained from private collections in the U. S. and abroad:

PIRE OF THE HOUSE OF BOMBS by Cecil, recommended for advanced students of communism and international banker power, a classic in the field, $6.00.

THE TRAILER by Thom Dixon, Jr., part of famed trilogy written 60 years ago to expose the terrors of the Reconstruction era, $6.00.

THE CLANSMAN by Dixon, part of the same trilogy, $6.00.

IMBROGLIO, another title by Dixon and not as good as the others, but important to collectors because it was one of the first books published in the U. S. about Communism, somewhat marred by a bad review, $4.00.

CONINGSBY, a coded book by Dickens, supposedly "lost" but secretly bought by the army of the Republic, $4.00.

INTIMATE PAPERS OF THE HOUSE, a beautiful 300 page recommended only for very advanced students of conspiracy, $10.00 per set.

We also have a complete set of several hard-to-find items. Among them is Philip Dru, Administrator, a handsome reprint of the coded novel written by Col. House, in which he copied Dickens' style of boasting of plans for the future. Another is a paperback set of photocopies of Money & Banking and The Currency Trust, also just for the advanced. It was written by Rep. Charles A. Lindbergh, Sr., father of the aviator, and probably helped bring about his untimely death. Both of these suppressed items are $3.00 each.

Easy reading and recommended for the periods they cover are SEAST BUTLER (Reconstruction Era and Later) $3.00; ISABELLA CRUSADER (Anti-Christ movement in Spain) $1; Dan Smoot's INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT (secret forces in U. ## Red Propaganda Picture Shows The Threat of Retroactive Law PASSAIC, N. J.—Lyndon Johnson is far from being universally popular among Communists and fellow-travelers.

Johnson was introduced into international politics by one of the top Communists in America, Aubrey Williams, who chose LBJ in the 1940's to head the NYA program in Texas. Williams is dead, and the flowers and personal message that LBJ sent to the funeral some eighteen months ago have symbolically faded.

Nevertheless, some of the lesser Reds in America are talking very loudly about turning LBJ as a "war criminal". The propaganda picture above appeared in a Red line publication (Minority of One), published here in November 1965, two years after the Communists killed John Kennedy.

Below is a photo of the president, appearing as a prisoner of war during the Nuremberg trials. Communists universally herald the Nuremberg trials as an important victory for their side, setting a precedent for "liquidating" their enemies with ex post facto laws.

"The brief accused should be Lyndon Baines Johnson and his aides. They should be tried for crimes against peace, war crimes and crimes against humanity, as defined in the Charter of the International Criminal Military Tribunal at Nuremberg."

Under such a plan, American

Walker at his Turtle Creek Drive residence in Dallas several months before the JFK assassination.)

Last year Walker tried again to warn Americans. He issued a statement that communists would like to use the precedents they established at Nuremberg to liquidate U. S. leaders who do not completely please them. Walker's statement preceded publication by the Reds of the tell-tale photo above.

A note of irony: The U. S. prosecutors who worked closely with the Russians during the Nuremberg trials are generally powerful in the leftwing CPK group in the U.S. today. They are deans of law schools, federal judges and functionaries of the Justice Department.

One of them was Leon Jaworski of Houston. Immediately after the Kennedy assassination, when it appeared that there might be a Texas investigation, Jaworski was named to the three-man panel which would have "investigated". He is also the man who received instructions from the Justice Department earlier to "get Ross Barnett".

Not all of the Nuremberg prosecutors were willing to go the whole route with the Russians. One of them, Francis Parker Yankov, quit in disgust and tried to warn Americans about what was happening in the world. He was hounded until his death by the U. S. Justice Department, dying under strange circumstances in a Soviet prison.

Agree With Katzenbach And Hoover On Important Point

WASHINGTON—The Justice Department and the Alice Carter Society are agreed on one point: that criminal assaults on women have increased.

Justice Department spokesman J. Edgar Hoover said rapes are up an astounding 22% in the North Central States and 14% nationally.

The Carter Society places some of the blame on the Justice Department, listing these factors:

(1) Propaganda which inflames the lust of colored men for white women, especially on T.V. and movie films apparently designed for this purpose.

(2) Justice Department and White House cooperation with Civil Rights leaders in encouraging race-mix activity.

A Sticky Problem For Double Standard Lawmakers in DeeCee

WASHINGTON—Red-faced congressmen have a sticky problem. Wording of the 1956 Civil Rights Bill gives special federal protection and immunities to persons who list themselves as "civil rights workers".

Members of several of the dozens of U. S. organizations which use the name "Ku Klux Klan" have let it be known that they will file as "workers for the civil rights of white men and women", which would give them the same protection as communists, NAACP's, and CORE's.

In Glenview, Ill., H. L.

Brentlinger has poked another finger into the federal pie crust by asking, "If I suffer terror or violence, do I have to prove that I am a civil rights worker in order to have those subjecting me to such terror prosecuted? I believe any federal law should apply equally to all citizens and not apply only if the victim has espoused one certain cause."

The congressional problem: How to show favoritism without creating a backlash that would trigger a return to the U. S. Constitution.

Buys Tuxedos For Dropouts While Fighting Men Need Shoes And Food

BATON ROUGE — The Louisiana Senate voted 34-0 for a resolution urging that adequate food be sent to U. S. troops in Viet Nam amidst growing evidence that the Johnson Administration is trying to feed all the world except U. S. soldiers. American taxpayers have sent wheat to Russia and dollars to Poland and Yugoslavia, while fighting men don't get proper nourishment and have to write home for shoes and vital equipment.

Meanwhile, in California, the Poverty Corps has outfitted 16 boys at Dos Palos Union High School with tuxedos and arranged to treat them and their dates at taxpayer's expense.

NEW YORK—The Communist Worker newspaper admits that its $80,000 fund drive is lagging and that it is hard pressed to raise funds to back civil rights activity in the South this summer.

All Russians Aren't Savages

ALL RUSSIANS AREN'T SAVAGES. At Sea Cliff, N. Y., there is a whole colony of anti-Communist Russians who are proud of their Christian faith. Among them is Ivan Pouschine, Jr., who stands with his wife, father and handsome children. The Sea Cliff colony was peopled by Russian Christians who survived the bloody takeover of their homeland 45 years ago.

They are unlike the Khazar ("false Jew") types who now control Moscow, or the flat-faced peasant stock. Racially, they are closely kin to their Christian cousins in North Europe and similar to the blood types which settled and developed the U. S.

Russian Orthodox Christian Church on Carpenter Ave. in Sea Cliff. It is a faithful reproduction of 14th century churches which once stood in the Pskov-Novgorod region of Russia before the U.S. financed takeover of Russia by Communists.

SOMETHING ELSEY HERE

Francis Yockey, above, was married to his dear, My Best in the World, and I love it. "Any political philosophy preservation was a result of Yockey's book, Impressionism."

Four police officers and their dogs patrol Panama Beach, Fla. in a move to protect the rights of ordinary citizens from civil disorders. More than 600 Negroes and on an inflamed rampage against innocent whites. Civil rights leaders, communists and leftwing ministers label peacekeeping efforts by lawmen as "police brutality".

CHICAGO—When officers arrested Donald Peterson, 18, in connection with rioting, arson and throwing Molotov cocktails at a squad car, he had some fancy explanations for the judge.

About that Molotov cocktail: "Judge, we was jus messin' around and havin' fun with the police."

how the IRS can hound and destroy a man."

Other Views

The government, apparently, isn't much afraid that this final big challenge will come from businessmen, but from some newsmen, ministers or members of a patriotic group. Most businessmen are afraid of their shadow and live as virtual prisoners of their own image, deals and uredures.

The Councilor has conducted its own unofficial survey of this situation, and received whispered comment from a U. S. congressman, and a former IRS agent.

Said the congressman: "Actually, if there is one group that IRS is afraid to tackle, it's the Birch-type who don't mind talking back. The last thing IRS wants and can afford is to get tangled with people who are connected with organizations that don't mind howling about federal mistreatment."

"Do you mean the Birch Society would be a good refuge for a man who wants protection from IRS harassment?" the congressman was asked.

"Well, I said Birch-types. I understand that the organization doesn't get involved in behalf of its individual members, but I could be wrong about this. It's the type of individual-- he's likely to belong to a half-dozen different groups and maybe his wife is in the DAR. He has connections and respectability and a sounding board.

"IRS had rather go after people who are involved in deals with the government, or with cringing-type businessmen. Certainly decisions are often made for political reasons, and the man who goes part way with LBJ is in far more danger than the fellow who is a loud and vigorous opponent.

"Even the communists kill their own leaders for half-way duty before killing" -- on the outside of the [redacted] case associates can and will fight back."

The IRS man interviewed in New Orleans shared some of the congressman's views and added some:

"I'd say 95% of the people that Sheldon [Rosen] is afraid to tackle are [redacted], even those in on the [redacted]. Next would be ministers and organization leaders. If the organizations are clean. Certainly, I wouldn't describe active radicals as immune, but they're known to be trouble-makers at the IRS and I'd like to deal with anyone who can make trouble."

"You see, IRS works on the theory that an accused man can be treated as a guilty man. Someday someone is going to knock this into a cocked hat. Or maybe worse if they start probing the bloodline connections and marriage connections, not only in the U. S. income tax outfit, but in a half-dozen other foreign tax shakedown agencies spread across the globe.

"When the IRS house of cards comes tumbling down, it will"

because one or more trouble-makers have kicked the cornerstone."

Do Christians - Christians? more tax persecution know. It would be to make a case on this point."

Kennedy And Goldberg Meet With Mau Mau

Bostonian Robert Kennedy, a New York senator, is shown here in an actual, untouched photograph with the leader of the savage Mau Maus.

Kennedy used to boast that all the women loved him and that "they eat their hearts out".

In Africa, his top associate is a man known for "eating their stomachs out". The man in the picture is Jomo Kenyatta who led savage hordes of cannibalistic Africans in bloody massacres of white men, women and children. Under his leadership, the Mau Maus were instructed to eat portions of the stomachs and other viscera of white victims as a step toward becoming white themselves, or to take on the white man's spiritual strength.

The poor quality of the picture results from the fact that it is a copy of a copy, and part of the detail has been lost in the process.

In this picture, the powerful U. S. leader chosen to succeed to Presidential powers in addition to those he now holds, shakes the hand of ritualistic death. He is Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg (right), joining hands with the No. 2 Mau Mau, E. N. Mwendwa (left) of Kenya. Looking on is a U. N. official.

What is Our Country Coming To, Mother?

GRAND FORKS, N. D. — Marine Cpl. Gordon Moen, wounded twice in Vietnam, has sent this message to his mother and a sleeping nation:

"This is a different war.... and these so-called war babies and high school dropouts are fighting it, while some of our brilliant, educated people are trying to turn over our country to the Communists...What is our country coming to, Mother? I hope you understand how we all feel over here. I see firsthand how the Communists work, and it is awful."

The worl is collen for more men that will stand up for the write thing. Just look at Gov. Wallace of Alabama. Gov. Wallace stood up as a full force man on his job. And I think Mr. Wallace would make a good president for us. Mr. Wallace underscand handlen the worl more easie than any body I no of. You take Mr. Wallace, he dosen chunk a rock and hide his hand when he threw one. He dont jump back. That's the kind of man we need to face the publish. Stand up as a man regolis to howm it hurt.

I belaeve Gov. Wallace can put things back on a balance wheel. The worl is so unbalance its goin to take a ofal smart man to ever get it back to where the people can live in peace again.

I am setten hear listen at the trouble the policeman havan with the silver write marchers in Mississippi. That all uncoil for. I haven found no place in the Bible yet where its say take any thing with vilous or builan your way threw.

Undignified Work

LOS ANGELES— Rising cost of asparagus and other California foods is due largely to federal intervention, making it difficult for growers to obtain labor. Colored people have been taught that harvesting is beneath their dignity and Secretary Wirtz has stopped the use of temporary Mexican "bracero" labor.

Welfare and unemployment compensation is sky high while farmers beg for labor that won't work, or isn't allowed to work.

A Simple Question

NEW YORK — A Councilor reporter looked about him on the elevator of Hotel Henry Hudson and saw several Mau Maus in their native costume. Other passengers regarded the tribesmen soberly and feigned respect until the 9th floor.

America's right to laugh suddenly returned to the little elevator at that point, with the artifice and tenseness quickly relieved. The reporter had turned to the tribesman and asked:

"Where the h— is Tarsan?"

The Councilor, though a family newspaper, offers no apologies for printing the picture with our purpose is to show cannot explain. Because the hour is late and America must know. The corpse above, found open handiwork of the African friends of Robert Kennedy and Arthur Goldberg. The Councilor has on file dozens of gruesome photographs of white women, white men, colored women, colored men and children who were murdered by ritual-practicing revolutionists in Africa. The murderers were the Mau Maus and similar groups which have the respect, adulation and assistance of such "Americans" as Kennedy, Goldberg and propagandist Chet Huntley. On March 24, 1964, the Associated Press and the Baton Rouge Morning News are described as "chirping" about Kennedy as a "hard-core" Communist. The same terms have been used to describe leftist politicians in the U. S.

Anti-Red Demonstrator Arrested in Springfield, Mass.

BUT EX-CONVICT PREACHER IS HONORED

SPRINGFIELD—You can't demonstrate if you are against communism.

This is apparently a double standard in Springfield, Mass. where Sammy Newhouse was the newspaper like he does in many other American cities visited by race trouble.

it is almost a common knowledge, truth about race matters, an illustrative joke is whispered cautiously from one white ear to another.

It's the definition of "mass confusion". Harlem on Father's Day.

*****

The joke is rooted in fact which is far from hilarious. Illegitimate births among colored people have reached frightening proportions, placing a major tax load on the working type of Americans, whether white or colored, who must subsidize the practice with hefty monthly checks to unmarried negro women who find their sins profitable.

The FBI, is preparing to lead NAACP and other civil rights demonstrators on a parade to dramatize their alleged "rights".

The picture was made as a Polish-American who knows the terrors of communist dictatorship appeared on the scene with a large sign. The photographer and others sustained minor injuries as the anti-communist was ejected and arrested by the police for demonstrating his views.

His sign carried a message which read "For God, Freedom and Country. Support Your Local Police."

The Councilor does not know what the bottom line said, but an observer at the scene whispered that it carried a "pro-Christian, anti-Semitic" accusation that "Jews are Communists". (Editor's note: The Councilor does not agree that all persons who call themselves Jews are Communists. Few real Hebrews were Communists. Most of the top leaders of Communism, Trotsky (alias Trotsky), Kamenovitch, Karl Marx, the Rothschilds, Khrushchev and others have claimed to be Jews, like Sammy Davis, Jr., but they did not necessarily claim to be Hebrews.)

The Councilor does believe that the Polish-American whose heart has known the grief of persecuted kinmen should have as much right to demonstrate his views on the streets of an American city as do professional agitation groups, whether we endorse every jot and tittle of his message or not.

WHAT LYNDON WANTS — LYNDON GETS!

GOLD

Feb. 18, 1965 — The House voted to eliminate the requirement for 25 percent Goldbacking of Federal Reserve Notes (HR 3418), making your dollar worthless. Mr. James H. Morrison voted to eliminate. — A Bad Vote.

MONEY GIVE-AWAY

Feb. 18, 1965 — The House voted to give $750,000,000.00 to the Inter-American Development Bank for three years (HR 45). This money was used by governments and private industry in South America — no return to you, the taxpayer. James H. Morrison voted to give it away. — A Bad Vote.

SEATING OF MISSISSIPPI DELEGATION IN CONGRESS

In January, 1965, Mr. James H. Morrison voted to seat the Mississippi Delegation. — A Good Vote.

HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE

Jan. 1965 — Mr. James H. Morrison voted to pack the House Rules Committee with liberal Congressmen, and in January 1965, he voted to make further changes which speed up the legislative process by eliminating opportunities for thoughtful deliberation, careful study, and full debate. — A Bad Vote by Mr. James H. Morrison.

DISARMAMENT AGENCY FUNDS

Feb. 17, 1965 — The House voted a bill authorizing $40,000,000.00 of your tax money for the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency (HR 2069). Your tax money is being used to disarm this country and make it impossible to defend ourselves. Mr. James H. Morrison voted for this bill. — A Bad Vote.

FEDERAL AID TO EDUCATION

March 26, 1965 — The House passed the Education Act of 1965 (HR 2362). This bill involves multi-billion dollar expenditures of your tax money. It means complete control of your local schools by people in Washington, D.C. Mr. James H. Morrison voted Yes. — A Bad Vote.

MONEY GIVE-AWAY

April 27, 1965 — The House passed a bill (HR 8497) to give the International Monetary Fund (IMF) $1,635,000,000.00. This makes a total of $5,100,000,000.00 we have given. Harry Dexter White, an undercover communist spy, started the IMF, and was its first director. Mr. James H. Morrison voted once again to give your money away. — A Bad Vote.

FOREIGN AID

May 25, 1965 — The House passed the Foreign Aid Bill (HR 7750) of 1965. Again, Mr. James H. Morrison voted for this give-away of four tax dollars, and at the same time voted against an amendment to the bill that would have denied foreign aid to communist dominated countries. — Two Bad Votes by Mr. Morrison.

NATIONAL DEBT INCREASE

June 9, 1965 — The House voted to once again increase the National Debt Limit, this time to $536,000,000,000 (HR 8484). This inflates your money and makes it worthless. — Mr. James H. Morrison voted Yes. — A Bad Vote.

RENT SUBSIDY

June 10, 1965 — The House passed HR 2064 with Rent Subsidy included. Your tax money will be used to pay other people's rent. Mr. James H. Morrison voted for this bill. — A Bad Vote.

GOVERNORS VETO OF POVERTY WAR PROGRAMS

July 22, 1965 — The House voted to limit severely the veto power of State Governors over the give-away programs, your tax money. Another example of the Federal Government taking over of State Rights. Mr. James H. Morrison voted to limit the powers of State Governors. — A Bad Vote.

VOTING RIGHTS ACT

Aug. 4, 1965 — The House voted to pass the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (HR 6601). Under this bill, the U.S. Attorney General Nicholas de B. Katzenbach is having the registration of illiterate negroes in your parish rights taken away. Mr. James H. Morrison voted for this bill. — A Bad Vote.
